

PTT PHILIPPINES BULLETIN

Snapshots of PTT Philippines' People and Events

PTT PH EXECS JOIN ASEAN FOOD FEST

PTT Philippines Corporation (PTTPC) President & CEO Khun Sukanya Seriyothin joined the ASEAN Embassies in the Philippines in the recently concluded ASEAN Food Festival 2023 held at the Music Hall of the SM Mall of Asia in Pasay City. Products such as textiles and fashion accessories from ASEAN-member economies were showcased during the annual festival organized by the Asean Ladies Foundation, Inc. PTT's Café Amazon was also showcased in the event that also featured signature Asean cuisine. Foreign Affairs Secretary Enrique Manalo who was the guest of honor in the event tried the Café Amazon drinks when he visited the booth. PTTPC Marketing Director Athiwat Rattanakorn joined Ms. Seriyothin in the annual festival that aims to foster stronger and closer economic and cultural ties between the ASEAN Member States and its Dialogue Partners.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE SETS COMPANY DIRECTION

PTT Philippines' top management recently apprised the PTT Family of its Corporate Governance to establish clear direction that builds integrity, promotes financial viability, and thrust among all its stakeholders. Corporate Support Director Paul Senador facilitated the discussion through a webinar attended by majority of PTT officers and staff, including PTT Philippines Corporation President & CEO Khun Sukanya Seriyothin and PTT Trading Corporation President Danilo Alabado. Mr. Senador tackled all the provision of the Corporate Governance particularly on the rules, practices and processes by which the company is directed and controlled.

NEW EMPLOYEES ORIENTATION

The Retail Academy has spearheaded the orientation training of new members of the PTT Family to guide them through the business operations and functions of each Department. Retail Academy head Jonathan Espino said the New Employees Orientation (NEO) was PTT's standard procedure for new members of the family for them to fully understand and appreciate the organization. "It is very important for each employee to fully understand the company in order for them to function effectively," Espino said. Training Supervisor Alex Balangue, on the other hand, said heads of each Department were invited to the three-day training as resource persons to personally discuss their respective functions and significance in the company.

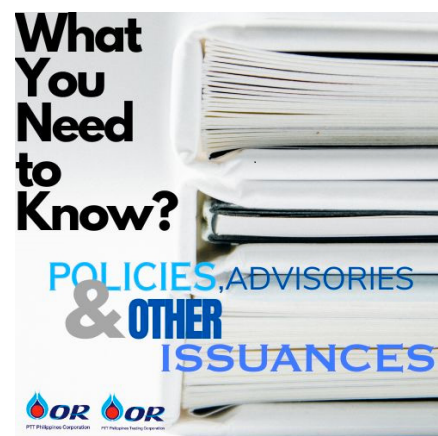

CAFÉ AMAZON PHILIPPINES EYES COLLABORATION WITH NESTLE

Café Amazon Philippines has met with a team from Nestle Philippines for a possible partnership that will strengthen the Thai coffee chain brand's positioning in the country. "We are working for a collaboration with Nestle being a global brand but we cannot discuss yet the details as of this moment," says Café Amazon Philippines Business Partner Development Manager Karen Flerida Gorospe. "But definitely there is something exciting to watch out for," she adds. The exploratory meeting was held at Nestle Philippines' head office in Rockwell Center, Makati. Gorospe was joined by her team with PTT Philippines Corporate Communications Manager Jonah Angeles. PTT Philippines is the master franchise holder of Café Amazon in the country.

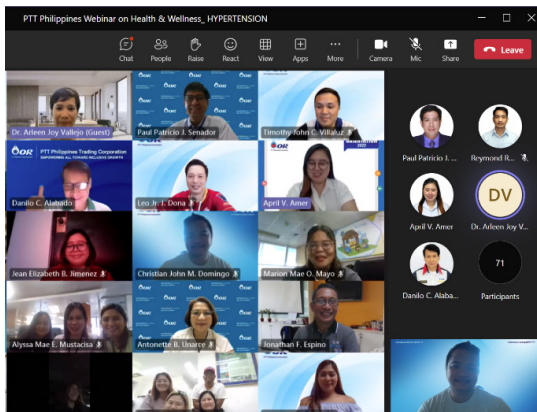

CORPCOMM, LEGAL DEP'T LAUNCH INTERNAL COMM ON GOVT ISSUANCES

The Corporate Communications and Legal Departments recently launched an internal communication as a new platform to provide information on significant circulars, advisories and other issuances from government regulators. A joint collaboration between CorpComm and Legal Teams, "What You Need to Know" serves as a communication tool to equip each member of the PTT Family with more advanced information on policies and other legal matters, Legal Head Atty. Francisco 'Thirdz' Javier said. "We hope to come up with materials more frequently as we believe that this learning tool could make a difference not only for every individual in PTT but generally in the whole organization, he added.

PTT PHILIPPINES TO RE-LAUNCH WEBSITE

A more responsive PTT Philippines website is in the offing that will provide a wide-array and updated information about the Thai oil firm's products and services. "This is a far-cry from our old website," PTT Philippines Corporate Communications Manager Jonah Angeles disclosed in her report to Corporate Support Director Paul Senador. "What we want to achieve is to provide our customers an easy access to information about our products, our stations, business opportunities, and more," she added. Among the new features of the website is a microsite of Café Amazon and the more detailed Investment Opportunities for would-be investors and other partners.

LIVE HEALTHIER WITH PROPER DIET, SAYS EXPERT

In the continuing KM series, the HR Department recently conducted another health information that could help employees some basic information relative to hypertension. Company Nurse April Velarde Amer facilitated "DASH: Dietary Approaches to Stop Hypertension" with Lifestyle Medicine Physician Dr. Arleen Joy Vallejo. Several dietary approaches were recommended during the discussion attended by more than 100 PTT Philippines employees. "As you can see, we have mustered a lot of participants today who are really interested at knowing proper diet. It goes to show that most of us acknowledge the need to live healthy," Corporate Support Director Paul Senador who delivered the opening remarks opined.

PTTPC SAFETY OFFICERS SENT TO FIREFIGHTING TRAINING

Safety and some key officers from PTT Philippines joined the OR Academy's Basic Fire Fighting Training Course as part of the organization's compliance with the Occupational Health and Safety Standards requirements. PTTPC QSHE head Jose Solomon said PTTPC sent its delegation to the training course that was also attended by their counterparts from PTT Cambodia and PTT Laos with OR Academy Officers. Safety Officer Raymond Dimitui, on the other hand, reported that basic theory of fire safety, fire behavior and the science behind fire prevention measures were tackled during the training. Participants were also taught the proper fire hose handling, fire suit donning, and fire exercise.

