The PTT Philippines family has once again played Santa during its annual gift-giving activity for some 200 orphans and rescued kids held at PTT Philippines' office in Subic Bay Freeport Zone. PTT Philippines Corporation President & CEO Athiwat Rattanakorn and PTT Philippines Trading Corporation President & CEO Danilo Alabado led the distribution of gifts composed of toys and food packs. They were assisted by Corporate Support Director and PTT Philippines Foundation, Inc. (PTTPFI) President Paul Senador who came in Santa costume to the delight of the children-beneficiaries. The beneficiaries were from six different shelters in Central Luzon namely, Jireh Children's Home in Castillejos, Zambales; Sacrifice Valley Informal Settlers Children's Center in Hermosa, Bataan; Ninos Pag-Asa Center in Olongapo City; ACTION, Inc Children in Olongapo City; Alliance for Children & Community Transformation Center in Dinalupihan, Bataan; and Social Development Center in Olongapo City.

CEBU, CALAMBA OPEN NEW PTT STATIONS

Two more PTT stations have opened in the province of Cebu, bringing to 31 the total number of stations in the Southern Island. The PTT Compostela located in Estaca, Compostela, Cebu; and PTT Sogod in Damolog, Sogod, Cebu formally opened last December 8, 2024 and December 15, 2024, respectively. They were eyed to cater to motorists traversing along the national highway of Compostela and Sogod, and other vehicles going to and from the North of Cebu. In Calamba, Laguna, PTT also opened a new station to serve motorists plying along the Chipeco Avenue. The PTT Chipeco is the station's second in Calamba town after PTT Pansol.

PTT execs, Café Amazon join Thai National Day celebration in Manila

PTT Philippines executives led by its President & CEO Athiwat Rattanakorn joined the Thai community in the Philippines in celebrating the Thai National Day in Manila last December. PTT also brought its own Thai coffee shop chain brand, Café Amazon in the event held at the Mayuree Ballroom of the Dusit Thani Manila. The occasion also served as an opportunity for Café Amazon to showcase its line of cold drinks for all the guests. The celebration, hosted by Thai Ambassador to the Philippines, His Excellency Ambassador Tull Traisorat was to honor Thailand's rich heritage and to further strengthen the ties between Thailand and the Philippines. Apart from Mr. Rattanakorn, he was also joined in the celebration by CFO Parot Lertpitaksinchai, Retail Marketing Director Sakon Masagee, Supply & Logistics Director Apichate Thipphayakosai, and the Café Amazon team led by Manager Jonah Angeles.

PTT, other oil players join DOF-BOC stakeholders consultation on fuel marking

PTT Philippines has joined other member-companies of Philippine Institute of Petroleum (PIP) in the recent stakeholders' consultation meeting called by the Department of Finance (DOF) and the Bureau of Customs (BOC) to intensify their fuel marking program. In the meeting presided by Finance Undersecretary Charlito Martin Mendoza, they presented a draft Department Circular that would intensify the fuel marking program through field testing. The homogeneity issue was raised earlier prompting the DOF and the BOC to consult with the stakeholders on the threshold limit of the required concentration that will become the basis for the field testing. Apart from Usec. Mendoza, also present in the meeting were Undersecretary Dakila Elteen Napao and BOC Deputy Commissioner Teddy Raval. PTT Philippines was represented by QSHE's Jose Solomon and Jay Julian of Corporate Communications Department. Other PIP-member companies were also represented in the meeting. Some members of Independent Philippine Petroleum Companies Association (IPPCA) were also present. The BOC recently reported that about 89.35 billion liters of fuel have been marked so far with P204.18 billion in taxes collected from the fuel marking alone. The government's fuel marking is in partnership with SGS Philippines and SICPA.

PTT joins DOE's IEC campaign on Higher Biofuel Blends

PTT Philippines key personnel have joined the Information, Education and Communication Campaign on Higher Biofuel Blends launched by the Department of Energy (DOE) to participate in a healthy discussion over the implementation of the three percent (3%) biodiesel blend beginning July last year. PTT Philippines with other industry players have expressed their support to the mandatory implementation of higher biodiesel blend that will also be raised to four percent (4%) effective July 01, 2025, and five percent (5%) effective July 01, 2026. PTT key personnel from Retail Marketing, Retail Training, and Corporate Communications joined in both the face-to-face and online IEC campaign that was conducted in a hotel in Bonifacio Global City, Taguig City.

Retail Academy conducts training for Lubes Distributor Sales Personnel

The Retail Academy has completed its Lubes Marketing & Retail Academy's High Spirits Motivational & Trade Area Analysis Training for PTT's Lubes Distributor Marketing People. Combined with lecture, workshop and sharing programs, the activity was filled with inspiring moments, providing participants with motivational training that would encourage them to effectively market the products. "It gave each one a great perspective especially when pursuing a career in sales," Academy Manager Jonathan Espino said after conducting the motivational training. "Our goal is to extend knowledge beyond our retail partners. Not often do these individuals receive such training." The activity also served as an opportunity for the participants to meet their counterparts and make some exchanges about best practices. The seminar held at PTT Training Center was attended by Luzon lubricant distributors - Lots of Gas Corp., 1 Megatrade Corp, Power Tread Services Inc., Baylor Supreme Trading, Fitlube Trading, and RTR Trading.
